

OTHER SAFETY & HEALTH WEB LINKS...

PLEASE NOTE: When looking for information on various occupational safety and health topics, sample plans and programs, or training materials, there are many more websites available than listed here. Hawaii has its own OSHA-approved state program, thus the contents of information and resources on the other safety and health web links may not be in compliance with Hawaii's laws, administrative rules, etc. Please check the information on the HIOSH website or call the HIOSH, Consultation and Training Branch at 808-586-9100 if you have any questions.
