

EXHIBITOR INFORMATION

7TH ANNUAL HAWAI‘I CONFERENCE ON LANGUAGE ACCESS

‘Ike ‘Āina—Language Access and Cultural Literacy

AUGUST 6-7, 2014—CONFERENCE (NEAL BLAISDELL CENTER)

7:45 A.M.—4:30 P.M.

RSVP REQUIRED: Click to RSVP <http://bit.ly/OLAexhibitor>. Space is limited. Applications are being accepted on a “first-come, first-served” basis. All accepted applicants will receive confirmations by e-mail.

EXHIBITOR FEES: Nonprofit – Free; All Others – $100.

TABLES & CHAIRS: Each organization is entitled to one (1) 3’x 6’ table and two (2) chairs.

POWER: Electrical outlets are limited. It is recommended that you bring your own extension cords. Please inform the Office of Language Access of your power needs.

INTERNET: Basic Wi-Fi connection is available for everyone. High speed internet is the responsibility of each exhibitor for a fee.

SETUP & BREAKDOWN: Set-up time is 7:15 am, break down is 4:00 pm (loading zone available). For more information, contact the Office of Language Access at 808-586-8730.

ADDITIONAL EXHIBITOR BENEFITS: Complimentary beverages during breaks and lunch included each day.

DEADLINE: Deadline for conference exhibitor applications is July 18, 2014.

PARKING: Visitor parking is available at Neal Blaisdell Center for $6 each day.

DIRECT EXHIBITOR INQUIRIES TO: Office of Language Access Phone 808-586-8730 Fax 808-586-8733 or Email Gail.McGarvey@doh.hawaii.gov. Remember to RSVP online <http://bit.ly/OLAexhibitor>.

What is cultural literacy and why is it important for language access?

This conference will bring together experts and practitioners in the fields of culture, education, law, health, human services, and others, including the public, private and non-profit sectors, to learn about Hawai‘i’s various cultures; understand the relationship between language, culture, and literacy; and get insights into the nature of cultural literacy.

Sponsored by
OFFICE OF LANGUAGE ACCESS, DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH and CITY AND COUNTY OF HONOLULU
For information, call 808-586-8730

