A non-profit organization (religious, charitable, or educational) qualifying for income tax exemption under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code may elect a self-financed status under provisions of Chapter 383-62(d) of the Hawaii Employment Security Law.

The security deposit shall be equal to .2 percent of the organizations total wages projected for a full calendar year. The Department may, at any time, review the adequacy of the deposit made by any organization. If, as a result of such review, the Department determines that an adjustment is necessary, it shall require an additional deposit within 30 days of written notice. The deposit shall be retained by the Department in an escrow account until liability under the election is terminated, at which time it shall be returned to the organization, less any deductions.
- (2) Liability for a self-financed reimbursable plan for a Non-Profit Organization would be an amount equal to the amount of regular benefits and of one-half of the extended benefits paid, that is attributable to service in the employ of such non-profit organization to individuals for weeks of unemployment which begin during the effective period of such election.
