

-----Original Message-----

From: Unemployment Advisory Department <support@us-benefits.org>

To:

Sent: Sun, Sep 15, 2013 1:18 pm

Subject: Unemployment Request Received

This email is to inform you that we have received your initial unemployment application request.

Our system indicated that you did not complete step 2, until you do, we will not be able to offer you any further assistance. You can either cancel your request, and we will delete your information, or you can go back to the registration form to continue.

To go back to the registration form, click below:

=> Click here to continue your unemployment registration

Please understand that your chances of getting denied go up the longer you wait to submit your official application.

Don't miss any of your benefit payments. Click the link and finish your application today:

=> Click here for the unemployment registration form

Support Team

U.S. Benefits Online

You are receiving this email because you requested information online.