FAIR HOUSING TRAINING 2021

April is national Fair Housing Month. The Fair Housing Act, passed to prevent discrimination in housing based on race, color, sex, national origin, or religion, was signed into law by President Lyndon Johnson on April 11, 1968.

This legislation and Hawai`i state laws prohibit any discriminatory practices in the sale, rental, financing, or advertising of a dwelling. Free “FAIR HOUSING: MORE THAN JUST WORDS” training is open to the public and will be held by videoconference. Two hour sessions will be held each Thursday in April, from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 pm, via WebEx.. The workshops include an overview of the law, a panel about the eviction moratorium, 3rd session on protected classes covering race, color and national origin on April 15th, Sex, sexual orientation, gender and familial status on April 22nd and the final session on April 29th will cover disability and reasonable accommodations in housing.
