ORDER DENYING THIRD REQUEST TO CONTINUE STATUS CONFERENCE

On December 7, 1994, the Hawaii Labor Relations Board (Board) continued the second status conference in this case until March 1, 1995 at 10:30 a.m. by Order No. 1131, pursuant to Complainant UNITED PUBLIC WORKERS, AFSCME, LOCAL 646, AFL-CIO'S (UPW'S) request. The Board indicated in that order that this case had been continued since September 28, 1993 and the Board was not inclined to grant any further continuances of the status conference.

On February 15, 1995, Complainant's representative requested another continuance of the status conference for two months to complete its memorandum of agreement with the City and County of Honolulu in order to resolve the issues in this matter.

After considering Complainant's request and the amount of time which has elapsed in this matter, the Board is interested in meeting with the parties to determine the status of this case.

Accordingly, Complainant's third request for continuance of the second status conference is hereby denied.

DATED: Honolulu, Hawaii, February 28, 1995.
