ORDER GRANTING HAWAII GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES ASSOCIATION,
AFSCME, LOCAL 152'S MOTION TO REMOVE CASE FROM CALENDAR

On March 5, 1997, the Board commenced a hearing on the merits of the instant complaint. The hearing was scheduled to resume on March 11, 1997 in Hilo, Hawaii. On March 7, 1997, Complainant HAWAII GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES ASSOCIATION, AFSCME, LOCAL 152, AFL-CIO (HGEA), by and through its attorney, filed a motion to remove the instant case from the calendar. HGEA's counsel states in an affidavit filed in support of the motion that he and opposing counsel have agreed to a process to informally resolve their differences and that they have further agreed that no hearing is necessary unless a request is made by either party to reset a date and time for hearing.

Based upon the foregoing, the Board hereby grants Complainant's motion to remove the instant case from the Board's calendar until further moved on.
