ORDER DENYING POE'S MOTION FOR POSTPONEMENT OF BOARD CONFERENCE

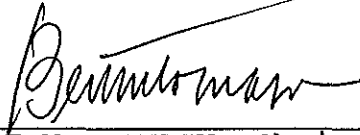

On July 31, 1997, Petitioner LEWIS W. POE (POE) filed a motion for continuance in this matter with the Hawaii Labor Relations Board (Board). POE requested that the Board postpone the Board conference scheduled on August 14, 1997 until after the Board disposes of Case No. DR-03-65 and/or until after an appellate court renders a final decision in S.C. No. 20615. POE contends that there is some conflict between the results of Decision No. 371, Lewis W. Poe, 5 HLRB 546 (1996), which is on appeal in S.C. No. 20615, Case No. DR-03-65, and the instant case.

After reviewing POE's motion and his affidavit attached to the motion, the Board hereby denies POE's motion to postpone the Board conference scheduled in this matter on August 14, 1997. The Board wishes to meet with the parties to ascertain their respective positions with regard to the instant petition and discuss other procedural matters. The Board reserves ruling on POE's motion to continue this matter pending the issuance of a decision in Case No. DR-03-65 and the resolution of S.C. No. 20615.

DATED: Honolulu, Hawaii, August 12, 1997.
