ORDER DISMISSING COMPLAINT WITH PREJUDICE

During the status conference held on August 7, 1997, Complainant's counsel represented to the Hawaii Labor Relations Board (Board) that Complainant wished to withdraw the instant complaint. However, since Complainant's counsel was unable to respond to certain specific questions raised by Respondents' counsel because of his unfamiliarity with the case, he indicated that another representative would contact the Board. Thereafter, Complainant's other representative contacted the Board to confirm that Complainant wished to withdraw the complaint and was instructed to file the appropriate motion.

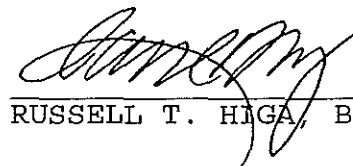

Nothing more has been filed with the Board. As Complainant wished to withdraw the instant complaint, the Board hereby dismisses the instant complaint with prejudice.

DATED: Honolulu, Hawaii, November 4, 1997.
