ORDER GRANTING COMPLAINANT'S SECOND
MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE OF POST-HEARING BRIEF

On August 28, 1998, Complainant, by and through its counsel, filed a second motion to extend the due date of the post-hearing briefs with the Hawaii Labor Relations Board (Board). Complainant requested an extension from August 28, 1998 to September 11, 1998. Complainant's counsel states in an affidavit attached to the motion that he needs further time to prepare his brief and that opposing counsel does not oppose the instant motion.

Based upon the foregoing, the Board hereby grants Complainant's motion and extends the due date for the filing of post-hearing briefs in this matter to the close of business on September 11, 1998.
