On June 1, 1999, Complainant, by and through its counsel, filed a motion to continue the hearing scheduled on June 2, 1999 with the Hawaii Labor Relations Board (Board). Complainant's counsel states in an affidavit attached to the motion that a continuance of the hearing is requested in order to permit the parties to resolve the underlying dispute without further litigation. Complainant's counsel further states that counsel for Respondent PETER B. CARLISLE agreed to the continuance to pursue settlement discussions.

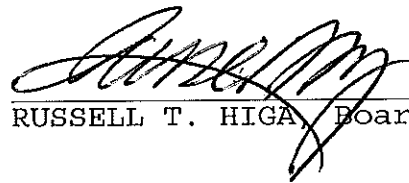

Based upon the foregoing, the Board hereby grants Complainant's motion to continue the hearing in this matter until further moved on by the parties.
