ORDER GRANTING COMPLAINANT'S SECOND MOTION TO EXTEND THE TIME TO FILE PROPOSED FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS, AND ORDER

On November 16, 1999, Complainant, by and through its counsel, filed a second motion to extend the time to file proposed findings, conclusions, and order with the Hawaii Labor Relations Board (Board). Complainant's counsel states in a declaration attached to the motion that due to delays in coordinating the proposed findings, conclusions, and order with his client and his involvement in other cases, he requires an extension of eight days or until November 26, 1999 to file a proposed order in this matter.

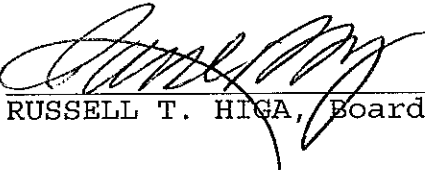

Based on the foregoing, the Board hereby grants Complainant's second motion to extend the time to file a proposed order in this case.
