ORDER GRANTING COMPLAINANT'S MOTION TO CONTINUE CASE

On February 2, 2000, Complainant, by and through its counsel, filed a motion to continue this case until moved on with the Hawaii Labor Relations Board (Board). Complainant's counsel states in a declaration attached to the motion that on January 19, 2000, an arbitrator sustained Complainant's grievance and granted Complainant's requested remedies which resolved the underlying issues of the instant complaint. Complainant's counsel further states that he intended to withdraw the instant complaint but the above-named Respondent filed a motion to modify or vacate the arbitration award. As the matter will not be resolved prior to the hearing presently scheduled on this complaint on February 15, 2000, Complainant requests that the Board continue this case until moved on by either party.

Based on the foregoing, the Board hereby grants Complainant's motion to continue this case until further moved on.
