ORDER DENYING UPW'S MOTION TO PERMIT DEPOSITIONS

On November 29, 2000, the Exclusive Representative UNITED PUBLIC WORKERS, AFSCME, LOCAL 646, AFL-CIO (UPW), by and through its attorney, filed with the Hawaii Labor Relations Board (Board) a Motion to Permit Depositions by Exclusive Representative of 52 individuals for the above-numbered petition.

The UPW's request is in addition to nine live witnesses it has called to appear before the Board on December 9, 2000 in this matter.

After reviewing the motion and the record, and given the current status of the pending petition, the Board denies the UPW's motion to permit depositions. If UPW wants to substitute any of its nine witnesses listed for December 9, 2000, and Petitioner agrees to any substitution, then the parties can proceed with an amended list of witnesses without prior approval of the Presiding Board Member.
