ORDER DISMISSING IMPASSE CASE

Based upon the Hawaii Labor Relations Board's (Board) information and knowledge that the parties had ratified the tentative agreement entered into between the parties and resolved the issues underlying the instant impasse, the Board issued a Notice of Intent to Dismiss Impasse Case Because of Mootness on May 15, 2013. The Board advised the parties that the Board would dismiss the case for mootness unless it received written notification within ten days setting forth the reasons why the case should not be dismissed.
