Order No. 328

ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO CONSOLIDATE

On May 5, 1980, Petitioner Hawaii State Teachers Association, NEA, (hereafter HSTA) by its attorney, filed with this Board, pursuant to HPERB Rule 1.08(g)(20), a motion to consolidate Case Nos. DR-05-39 and RA-05-40 on the grounds that said cases involve substantially the same parties and/or issues and consolidation would be conducive to the proper dispatch thereof.

On May 19, 1980, the Board held a hearing on this motion.

Also on May 19, 1980, the Board issued a notice stating that BOE, the Hawaii Government Employees' Association, and any other persons wishing to intervene in the above cases were to notify the Board of their intent to intervene by May 30, 1980.

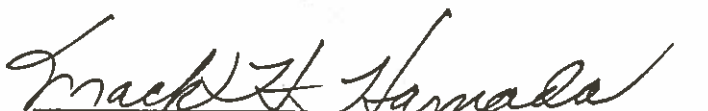

On May 30, 1980, Board of Education (hereafter BOE) petitioned to intervene in Case Nos. DR-05-39 and RA-05-40.

On June 4, 1980, this Board granted BOE's petitions to intervene in Case No. DR-05-39 (Order No. 322) and Case No. RA-05-40 (Order No. 323).

On June 10, 1980, Ann Thiede, on behalf of herself and all unit 13 speech/language pathologists, educational therapists and clinical psychology assistants, petitioned to intervene in Case No. RA-05-40. On June 12, 1980, this Board granted the petition to intervene of Ann Thiede, et al. (Order No. 326).

Good cause appearing for Petitioner HSTA's Motion to Consolidate, the motion is granted.
