ORDER DISMISSING CASE

On June 17, 1981, counsel for Complainants State of Hawaii Organization of Police Officers, hereinafter SHOPO, and Wayne Lee filed a Request to File Settlement Agreement and a Request for Withdrawal of Prohibited Practice Complaint with Prejudice with this Board. The Board recognizes that the instant Settlement Agreement need not be made a part of the record; that an affidavit properly filed in support of the Request for Withdrawal would be sufficient for this purpose; and that a request to file a document with the Board automatically becomes part of the record. However, inasmuch as Complainants' Request for Withdrawal is based upon such Settlement Agreement, that Agreement is hereby made part of the record and, since the issues have been satisfactorily resolved between the parties, the instant Prohibited Practice Complaint is dismissed with prejudice.
