ORDER GRANTING COMPLAINANT'S APPLICATION TO TAKE DEPOSITIONS UPON ORAL EXAMINATION AND FOR ISSUANCE OF SUBPOENAS DUCES TECUM

On August 25, 1982, Complainant EDGAR H. W. LUM, by and through his counsel, Rodney H. S. Kim, filed with the Hawaii Public Employment Relations Board [hereinafter referred to as Board] an Application to Take Deposition Upon Oral Examination and for Issuance of Subpoena Duces Tecum together with a supporting affidavit of said counsel. By the application, Complainant requested leave of this Board to take the depositions of Arlie Carson, Executive Assistant to the Director of the Department of Finance; Davis Yogi, union agent assigned to Complainant on his grievance; and Ernest Hara, Complainant's supervisor prior to his termination.

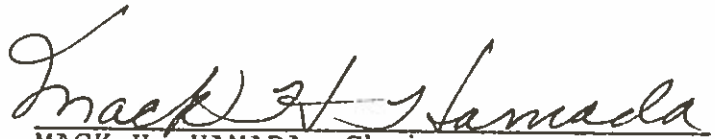

The affidavit of counsel states the depositions are critical to determine the issues involved in this matter and necessary for preparation for the final hearing scheduled on September 13, 1982.

For good cause shown, the Application to Take Deposition Upon Oral Examination and for Issuance of Subpoena Duces Tecum is hereby granted.

DATED: Honolulu, Hawaii, September 1, 1982.
