ORDER GRANTING REQUEST FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME WITHIN WHICH TO FILE BRIEFS

On December 2, 1983 Respondent HAWAII GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES' ASSOCIATION, AFSCME, LOCAL 152, AFL-CIO, by and through its attorney, Yukio Naito, filed with this Board a Request for an Extension of Time Within Which to File Briefs. Respondent requested an extension of time from December 8, 1983 until January 31, 1984 to file simultaneous briefs.

In a supporting affidavit attached thereto, counsel stated he is unable to review the hearing transcripts at this time because of his responsibilities as chair of the 1981 Reapportionment Commission of the State of Hawaii and because of his responsibilities in preparing a report on ceded lands of the State to be presented to the State legislature in January 1984. Counsel also stated that all other parties have no objection to this extension request.

For good cause shown, Respondent HGEA's request is granted. The briefs in this matter shall be filed on or before January 31, 1984.

DATED: Honolulu, Hawaii, December 12, 1983 .
