ORDER DENYING MOTION TO AMEND ORDER

On January 30, 1985, Respondent HAWAII GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES ASSOCIATION, AFSCME LOCAL 152, AFL-CIO, [hereinafter referred to as Union] filed a Motion to Amend Order with this Board. By its motion, the Union requested that the Board amend its Order in Decision No. 203 by modifying or deleting Order No. (3) because it believes the order imposes an onerous and unreasonable burden on the Union.

In a supporting affidavit attached thereto, Melvin M. Higa, Deputy Director of HGEA, stated there are more than 500 designated spaces throughout the City and County of Honolulu upon which union material can be posted. Further, full compliance with the Board's order to duplicate and display Decision No. 203 would require the Union to expend over $1,000.

Although the Union characterizes the Order as imposing an unreasonable and expensive burden, Decision No. 203 specifically found the Union breached its duty of fair representation to a union member. The Board considers the posting of said decision to be a standard and affirmative method of informing bargaining unit members of said breach. Accordingly, Respondent's Motion to Amend Order is denied.

DATED: Honolulu, Hawaii, February 7, 1985.
