ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR
EXTENSION OF TIME TO SUBMIT WRITTEN COMMENTS
REGARDING PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO BOARD RULES

On March 15, 1985, the Board issued a Notice of Receipt of Rulemaking Petition and Invitation for Comments. The notice was sent to the public employers requesting submission of their comments on Petitioner's proposed rules within fifteen days of the receipt of the notice.

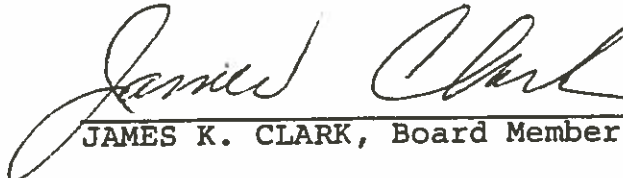

On April 1, 1985, the public employers, George R. Ariyoshi, Governor of the State of Hawaii; Dante Carpenter, Mayor of the County of Hawaii; Hannibal Tavares, Mayor of the County of Maui; Frank F. Fasi, Mayor of the City and County of Honolulu and Tony T. Kunimura, Mayor of the County of Kauai; by and through their counsel, filed a motion to extend the deadline for submission of comments until April 16, 1985. The affidavit of Deputy Corporation Counsel Charlotte J. Duarte submitted in support of the motion indicates that the request is based upon the calendar conflicts of legal counsel. Good cause appearing therefore, the Board hereby grants the subject motion. The deadline for submission of comments by the public employers is extended until April 16, 1985.

DATED: Honolulu, Hawaii, April 8, 1985.
