ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO WITHDRAW
PROHIBITED PRACTICE COMPLAINT

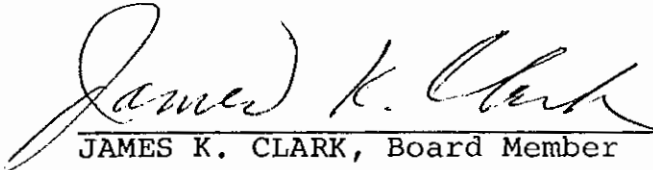

On May 16, 1985, the Hawaii Public Employment Relations Board [hereinafter referred to as Board] commenced the hearing in this matter. After the Board ruled upon the several outstanding motions, Complainant, REGINALD P. GAGE, II, made an oral motion to withdraw his prohibited practice complaint with prejudice.

As the subject matter of this complaint stems from alleged discriminatory acts over which this Board arguably has no jurisdiction and Complainant has filed a complaint with the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Board hereby grants Complainant's motion pursuant to Administrative Rules § 12-42-44. The subject prohibited practice complaint is deemed to be withdrawn with prejudice and this case is closed.
