ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO DEFER OR STAY

On July 21, 1986, Intervenor GEORGE R. ARIYOSHI, by his attorney, Lawrence D. Kumabe, Deputy Attorney General, filed a motion that this Board defer or stay further proceedings in the above-captioned matter, pending the outcome of decision in Case Nos. RA-13-106 and RA-13-110.

The motion is based on the grounds that:

1. The above-captioned matter involves a petition to include certain secretarial positions in bargaining unit 3. These positions serve as secretaries to the positions of Tax Collector and Tax Assessor involved in pending Case Nos. RA-13-106 and RA-13-110.

2. The Board's decisions in Case Nos. RA-13-106 and RA-13-110 will in all likelihood dispose of the primary factual and legal issues involved in the above-captioned matter.

3. As a result, both Petitioner HAWAII GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES ASSOCIATION and Employer GEORGE R. ARIYOSHI have agreed that it is in the best interest of economy and justice, that further proceedings in the above-captioned matter are deferred or stayed pending the outcome or decision by the Board in Case Nos. RA-13-106 and RA-13-110.

Pursuant to Administrative Rules § 12-42-8(g)(3), the motion is hereby granted. Proceedings in the above-captioned matter shall be stayed pending issuance of a Board decision in Case Nos. RA-13-106 and RA-13-110.

DATED: Honolulu, Hawaii, August 6, 1986.
