ORDER OF CONTINUANCE

At the prehearing conference of the above-entitled case on January 7, 1988, it was determined that issues before the Board in the instant case were being processed by the parties through the contractual grievance procedure. The Board determines that, pending determination of the grievance issues, this case should be held in abeyance.

For good cause shown, the Board hereby continues the instant case until resolution of the applicable grievance process and until any party files a motion to reschedule the case. The parties are instructed to notify the Board of any settlement or resolution of the instant matter prior to hearing.
