ORDER GRANTING UNITED PUBLIC
WORKERS' MOTION TO RESCHEDULE HEARING

On October 5, 1989, the UNITED PUBLIC WORKERS, AFSCME, LOCAL 646, AFL-CIO (UPW), by and through its counsel, Herbert R. Takahashi, Esq., filed a Motion to Reschedule Hearing with this Board. In his supporting affidavit, counsel states that he is unable to attend the hearing scheduled on October 20, 1989 because of conflicts in his calendar.

In addition, the Board received notice on October 5, 1989, that Christopher J. Roehrig, Esq., would be withdrawing from the case as counsel for ROGER R. MARTIN (MARTIN). At the prehearing conference held in this case on October 6, 1989, MARTIN indicated that he would be attempting to find an attorney to represent him and would so notify the Board by October 20, 1989. In the event he is unsuccessful in retaining an attorney, MARTIN indicated that he will represent himself in these proceedings.

For good cause shown, the Board hereby grants the United Public Workers' Motion to Reschedule Hearing. In addition, a further prehearing conference to be conducted by conference call will be noticed prior to the tentatively scheduled hearing date of November 17, 1989.

DATED: Honolulu, Hawaii, October 10, 1989.
