ORDER DISMISSING PETITION FOR DECERTIFICATION

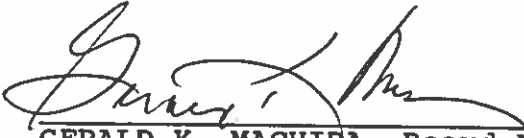

By Order No. 917 dated December 31, 1992, the Hawaii Labor Relations Board (Board) stayed the proceedings in this matter because the record indicated that the Board lacked jurisdiction to entertain the subject petition for decertification. The proceedings were stayed to permit the Petitioner LILLIAN J. PAIVA (PAIVA) to invoke the jurisdiction of the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB). On April 12, 1993, the Board was notified that the NLRB determined in a related unfair labor practice case that the incumbent labor organization no longer represented a majority of the Employer's employees. Thus, the NLRB dismissed PAIVA's petition as no question of representation was presented.

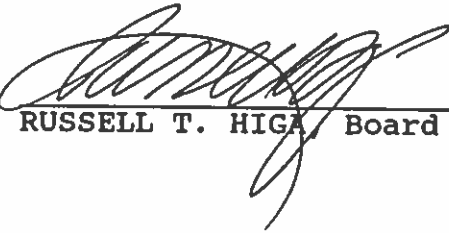

Based on the foregoing, the Board hereby dismisses the instant petition for lack of jurisdiction.

DATED: Honolulu, Hawaii, April 14, 1993.
