CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, POLYNESIAN VOYAGING SOCIETY

May 2013 to May 2022

The Polynesian Voyaging Society (PVS) is a Hawaii non-profit organization established in 1973. The mission of PVS is "to perpetuate the art and science of traditional Polynesian voyaging through experiential educational programs that inspire students and their communities to respect and care for themselves, each other, and their natural and cultural environment. In May of 2013, PVS embarked on the international leg of their voyage around the world. Malama Honua the Worldwide Voyage started with the launching of two (2) PVS voyaging canoes, Hokule'a and Hikianalia.

The Chief Executive Officer is responsible for all administrative aspects of PVS. This includes personnel management, budget development, accounting, compliance, and fund development. It is estimated that the cost of the worldwide voyage, which will last until approximately July 2017, will cost approximately $30 million.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, NATIVE HAWAIIAN ROLL COMMISSION

January 2012 to June 2013

The Native Hawaiian Roll Commission was established pursuant to Act 195 of the 2011 Legislature and is intended to create a process for enrolling all members of the Hawaiian community both in Hawaii and across the continent. The Act calls for the Governor to appoint 5 Commissioners to guide the work on the Commission. The Commissioners are also authorized to hire an Executive Director and necessary staff. The Commission is in the process of establishing a timeline for the enrollment program. The Executive Director is responsible for the day to day operations of the work of the Commission. Though the Native Hawaiian Roll Commission was established by State law, it operates much like a non-profit corporation. As Executive Director I worked closely with the Chair of the Commission, Governor John Waihee.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, OFFICE OF HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS

August 2001 to December 2011

Pursuant to Chapter 10 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes, the Administrator is the Chief Executive Officer of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs and is responsible for implementing all policies adopted by the Board of Trustees. All officers and employees of the agency serve at the pleasure of the Chief Executive Officer. The Office of Hawaiian Affairs manages an investment portfolio of approximately $360 million and general fund assets of approximately $2.5 million annually. Highlights:

- OHA has gone from a budget of $14 million in 2001 to a budget of approximately $40 million in 2010.
- Current staff level is approximately 160 full-time employees.
- 2003: Coordinated the effort to restore ceded land payments to OHA.
- 2004: Coordinated the acquisition of Waimea Valley.
- 2004: Coordinated OHA's first land acquisition, 5000 acres of land at Wao Kele O Puna, on Hawaii island.
- 2005: Lead the establishment of OHA's Limited Liability Non-Profit Corporations to Manage its Land holdings and other businesses.
- 2002: Led the effort to restore ceded lands payments to OHA following the Hawaii Supreme Court ruling in OHA v. State.
- 2006: Led the effort to codify ceded land payments to OHA at $15.1 million. Also included a certain amount of back payments August 1990 to August 2001
