§12-43-5 Filing and service of documents. (a)

All documents submitted to be filed with the board for a case are subject to the following requirements.

(b) General provisions applicable to all parties.

(1) Form of documents.

(A) All documents filed with the board shall be legible when printed on letter-size or A4 paper measuring eight and one-half inches by eleven inches in size, with twenty-pound weight or higher, written in ink or typewritten, one and one-half spaced between the lines, in twelve-point type or equivalent type size using Times New Roman or Courier or equivalent font, except that any document or exhibit on paper larger than letter-size shall be resized to fit on a letter-size paper. Any document or exhibit that cannot be resized or any video or audio recording shall be filed pursuant to the board's directions.

(B) The first page of every pleading shall set forth the name, current mailing address, email address, and telephone number of the party or party's representative who may be served with any document filed in the proceeding, the title of the pleading, the case number, and the name of the proceeding. All declarations shall conform to this section.

(2) Declaration. A declaration shall accompany all complaints or petitions in writing, signed by the declarant with an electronic or handwritten signature, certified by the declarant that the declaration was signed under penalty of law and its contents are true and correct, and dated. All declarations shall conform to this section.

- (3) Certificate of service. All pleadings filed with the board after the filing of the initial petition, complaint, transmittal of a notice of contest or other pleading initiating the proceeding at the board, must be accompanied by a certificate of service upon all other parties, certifying that service was made electronically, by first class mail, or by hand-delivery. All correspondence or other communication submitted to the attention of the board must also be sent to all other parties or their representatives.
- (4) Signing a document. All documents filed with the board must be signed, either in black ink or electronically. A person's signature on a document constitutes a certification by the person that:
 - (A) The person has read the document;
 - (B) To the best of the person's knowledge, information, and belief, every statement contained in the document is true and correct and no statements are misleading;
 - (C) The person has complied with all applicable rules; and
 - (D) The document is not filed to hinder or delay the proceeding or for the purpose of harassing any party.
- (5) Service of documents. All documents filed with the board must be served on the other parties or the parties' representatives. Service of a document is complete upon mailing, hand-delivery, or electronic delivery; however, whenever a party has the right, or is required, to perform some act or take some action within a prescribed period after service of a document, and the document is served by mail, two days shall be added to the prescribed period.
 - (c) Electronic filing and service. All documents shall be filed using the board's electronic filing system (EFS), except as specifically provided herein. Information on registering for the board's EFS shall be available on the board's webpage or at the board's office. Only "users", as defined in paragraph (1), may use the board's EFS.

- (1) As used herein, "user" or "users" means a party or a party's representative in a case before the board and registered with the EFS. All attorneys or law firms representing a party appearing before the board shall register as a user. An employee of a user may register as a user in the employee's own name to file documents on behalf of the employee's employer, provided that such employer shall be responsible for the employee's actions and documents electronically filed by the employee. Each user shall follow the requirements of the EFS, including keeping the user's registration information current with the EFS.
- (2) As used herein, "electronic signature" means the name of the user typed in the space usually reserved for a handwritten signature preceded by "/s/" or the image of the user's handwritten signature or any other mark or symbol acceptable to the board. Subject to the board adopting alternative verification methodology, once a document is filed with the EFS, the electronic signature shall carry the same weight and legal effect as a handwritten signature. The user is responsible for all acts and documents filed with the EFS.
- (3) An electronically filed document shall have the same legal effect as a document filed at the board's office and is deemed to be filed as of the date and time affixed on the document by the board's EFS provided that any document filed with the EFS on a day or at a time when the board is not open for business is deemed filed on the next date or time the board is open for business.

- (4) If an electronic filing or an electronic service of a document does not occur because of the EFS' failure to process the document, inaccessibility to the EFS, or an EFS error and it was not due to the user's fault, the board may extend any deadline.
- (5) An employer, exclusive representative, or labor organization who is a party to a case before the board may be permitted access to their case file by the board upon request.

(d) Exemption from electronic filing. A self-represented litigant (SRL) may file a signed written request with the board for an exemption from subsection (c) stating the reasons for the request. The signed request shall automatically be granted. The SRL shall agree to file all documents by first class mail or hand-delivery at the board's office and serve all documents to the other parties in the case by first class mail or hand-delivery at the party's last known address.

- (1) All documents submitted to the board for filing under this subsection must contain the SRL's original handwritten signature in black ink.
- (2) Upon receiving a document, the board shall affix a date and time on the document, signifying when the document was filed, which will be deemed as the original filing date. The filed document will be uploaded by the board to the EFS. The original filed document will be discarded. Any date and time affixed by the EFS will not change the original filing date.

(e) Board documents. The board may electronically serve board-issued documents upon parties, counsel, or representatives who are users. If an SRL is not a user, the board shall serve such party by mail or hand-delivery at the party's last known address, unless otherwise required by law.

- (1) Unless otherwise required by law, the board shall give written notice of any hearing by first class mail or by electronic service through the EFS at least fifteen days before the scheduled date of the hearing.
- (2) If electronically filed, all documents issued by the board may be signed using electronic signatures by a board member, hearings officer, executive officer, or staff member. [Eff OCT 21 2022] (Auth: HRS §§89-5, 89-5.1, 377-11, 396-11.5) (Imp: HRS §§89-5, 89-5.1, 89-14, 377-9, 396-11.5)

§12-43-6 Retention of documents. (a) All documents filed with or submitted to and accepted by the board shall be retained in the files of the board in such form or format as allowed in section 92-29, HRS, which copy, whether a photograph, microphotograph, reproduction on film or electronic copy, shall be an original record pursuant to section 92-30, HRS. The board's documents may be destroyed as provided in section 92-31, HRS.

(b) The board may permit the withdrawal of original documents upon submission of properly authenticated copies to replace the original documents. [Eff OCT 21 2022] (Auth: HRS §§89-5, 377-11, 396-11.5) (Imp: HRS §§89-5, 377-11, 396-11.5)

§12-43-7 Confidential information. (a) Notwithstanding any other rule to the contrary, a party shall not include: (1) confidential information, including the information enumerated in section 92F-14, HRS, in which an individual may have a significant privacy interest; and (2) any personal information, as defined in section 487N-1, HRS, in any document submitted to, or filed with, the board.

(b) All confidential or personal information that is not relevant to a proceeding shall be redacted from documents before filing or submitting the documents to the board. If the confidential or personal information is relevant to a proceeding, the confidential or personal information shall be removed from documents and shall be filed with or submitted to the board in a format that substantially conforms to Forms 1 and 2 of the Hawaii Court Records Rules. "Confidential or personal information" includes social security numbers, birth dates, home addresses, bank account numbers, medical and health records, and any other information in which a person has a significant privacy interest.

(c) If the party submitting or filing a document containing confidential or personal information believes that the information is relevant to the proceeding and that the use of a form substantially similar to Form 2 of the Hawaii Court Records Rules is not adequate to protect the confidentiality or personal interest, the party may request by motion that the board accept the confidential or personal information under seal.

(d) To the extent that any confidential or personal information is not redacted and is or may be part of a record on appeal of a contested case which is subject to judicial review pursuant to chapters 89, 377, 396, or 91, HRS, if the party submitting or filing the document without redaction is an individual or entity with the confidentiality or personal interest, then such interest is waived and such document shall not be altered (whether by redaction or otherwise) unless permitted by the board in its discretion upon motion duly made.

(e) Upon motion or upon the board's own initiative, the board may permit or order redaction of confidential or personal information contained in documents previously filed with or submitted to the board. In such event, the redacted version shall replace the unredacted version in the board's files.

(f) The board may impose sanctions and penalties upon parties or the parties' attorneys or representatives who do not comply with this section, where the parties or the parties' attorneys or representatives have not shown good cause for failure to comply. Penalties may include monetary penalties not to exceed $1,000 per page. [Eff OCT 21 2022] (Auth: HRS §§89-5, 377-11, 396-11.5) (Imp: HRS §§89-5, 89-14, 377-9, 396-11.5)

§12-43-8 Time. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules or by order of the board, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event, or default after which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included unless it is a Saturday, Sunday, or state holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, Sunday, or state holiday. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than seven days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and state holidays shall be excluded in the computation. [Eff OCT 21 2022] (Auth: HRS §§89-5, 377-11, 396-11.5) (Imp: HRS §§89-5, 89-14, 377-9, 396-11.5)

§12-43-9 Extensions. Unless otherwise provided by statute or law, the board may upon its own initiative, or upon motion by a party showing good cause, extend the time within which any action shall be taken at the request of any party. A party requesting an extension of time shall file a motion with an accompanying declaration stating the reasons for the request. [Eff OCT 21 2022] (Auth: HRS §§89-5, 377-11, 396-11.5) (Imp: HRS §§89-5, 89-14, 377-9, 396-11.5)

(c) The board may, by written order, establish reasonable hourly and daily rates of mediators and arbitrators. [Eff OCT 21 2022] (Auth: HRS §§89-5, 89-11) (Imp: HRS §§89-5, 89-11)

- (C) In preparing a concise statement, the party shall reference only the material facts necessary for the board to determine the limited issues presented in the motion. The party shall include a citation to a particular declaration, exhibit, or other document supporting the party's interpretation of the material fact for each reference. The concise statement shall further specifically identify the page and portion of the page of the document referenced, with relevant portions of the attached exhibits, declaration, or exhibit highlighted or otherwise emphasized. Documents referenced in the concise statement may be filed in their entirety if the full context would be helpful to the board. If the referenced document is extracted, sufficient portion of the document shall be attached to put the matter in context.
- (D) In resolving a motion for summary judgment, the board shall have no independent duty to search and consider any part of the record not otherwise referenced in the concise statements of the parties, or to review exhibits in their entirety; rather, the board may in its discretion review only those portions of the exhibits specifically identified in the concise statements.

(d) In circumstances involving excusable neglect, the board may, upon motion, extend the time within which the answer shall be filed.

(e) All allegations of new matters in the answer shall be deemed denied without the necessity of a reply.
