HOW DOES THE BOARD ADDRESS WEBSITE ACCESSIBILITY?

The Labor and Industrial Relations Appeals Board ("Board") strives to maintain accessibility to its web site.

Improving access to persons with disabilities is one of our top priorities, and any suggestions or comments are welcome.

Information available on the Board's web site is generally available in Word, HTML or Portable Document Format (PDF). We strive to ensure the pages on this web site are accessible to individuals with disabilities.

If you use assistive technology and the format of any material on our web sites interferes with your ability to access the information, please use the following point of contact for assistance, dliir.appealsboard@hawaii.gov. To enable us to respond in a manner most helpful to you, please indicate the nature of your accessibility problem, the preferred format in which to receive the material, the web address of the requested material and your contact information. A staff member will contact you within three business days to assist and to provide you the website information being sought.

Linking Policy

The Board's website may include links to other web sites created and maintained by other public and/or private organizations. The Board provides links to these sites as a service to our users. The presence of the link is not an endorsement of the site(s).

Disclaimer

This information is not intended to be a complete or full statement of the state and federal laws governing persons with disabilities and is not intended to be, or to substitute for, legal advice.
