ORDER HOLDING CASE IN ABEYANCE
and
NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DISMISS

On June 13, 2023, Claimant AURORA MANZON appealed the Director's June 7, 2023 Decision to the Board.

On July 20, 2023, the Board issued a Notice of Initial Conference and Trial setting an initial conference for September 20, 2023 at 10:00 a.m.

On September 19, 2023, the Board issued a Notice Resetting Initial Conference and rescheduled the initial conference to 1:30 p.m. on September 20, 2023.

At the September 20, 2023 initial conference, Alex M. Sonson, Esq., attorney for Claimant, notified the Board that Claimant passed away on July 11, 2023. Mr. Sonson further notified the Board that Claimant may have dependents and Claimant's son had requested that Mr. Sonson assist with having the son named as Claimant's Personal Representative.

On October 23, 2023, Mr. Sonson filed a Certificate of Death, confirming that Claimant died on July 11, 2023.

To date, the Board has not received written notice from Mr. Sonson that he is no longer representing Claimant. The Board, however, recognizes that, as a general rule, the authority of counsel to proceed with a case is terminated upon the death of the party being represented. Bagalay v. Lahaina Restoration Foundation, 60 Haw. 125 (1978).

To date, no court-appointed personal representative or special administrator of the Estate of Claimant has appeared in this appeal.

The following legal authorities are relevant:

"A deceased person cannot be a party to a legal proceeding, and the effect of death is to suspend the action as to the decedent until his legal representative is substituted as a party." Bagalay v. Lahaina Restoration Foundation, 60 Haw. 125 (1978) (citations omitted.)

"As a general rule, the authority of counsel to proceed with a case is terminated upon the death of the party being represented . . . but the courts can pass upon questions raised and listen to suggestions as to their disposal from an attorney who is an officer of the court" Id.

" . . . an heir of an undistributed estate, who has not been judicially appointed as the personal representative of a decedent's estate, is not a 'proper party' for substitution" Roxas v. Marcos, 89 Haw. 91 (1998), (analyzing the application of HRCF Rule 25(a)(1) and citations omitted).

“The majority rule in other jurisdictions is that only judicially appointed representatives may be substituted for a decedent party.” Id. (Citations omitted.)

§ 12-47-25, LAB Rules: “Upon motion and for good cause shown, the board may order substitution of parties, except that in the case of a party’s death, substitution may be ordered without filing a motion.”

§ 371-4(k), HRS: “The board may make or issue any order or take other appropriate steps as may be necessary to enforce its rules and orders and to carry into full effect the powers and duties given to it by law.”

§ 560:1-302(a), HRS: “To the full extent permitted by the Constitution and except as otherwise provided by law, the court has jurisdiction over all subject matter relating to: (1) Estates of decedents, including construction of wills and determination of heirs and successors of decedents, and estates of protected persons”

§ 560:3-103, HRS: “Except as otherwise provided in article IV, to acquire the powers and undertake the duties and liabilities of a personal representative of a decedent, a person must be appointed by order of the court or registrar, qualify and be issued letters. Administration of an estate is commenced by the issuance of letters.”

§ 560:3-105: “Persons interested in decedents’ estates may apply to the registrar for determination in the informal proceedings provided in this article, and may petition the court for orders in formal proceedings within the court’s jurisdiction including but not limited to those described in this article. The court has exclusive jurisdiction of formal proceedings to determine how decedents’ estates, subject to the laws of this State, are to be administered, expended, and distributed. The court has concurrent jurisdiction of any other action or proceeding concerning a succession or to which an estate, through a personal representative, may be a party, including actions to determine title to property alleged to belong to the estate, and of any action or proceeding in which property distributed by a personal representative or its value is sought to be subjected to rights of creditors or successors of the decedent.”

§ 560:3-703(c): “Except as to proceedings which do not survive the death of the decedent, a personal representative of a decedent domiciled in this State at the decedent’s death has the same standing to sue and be sued in the courts of this State and the courts of any other jurisdiction as the decedent had immediately prior to death.”

The Board’s order herein is consistent with the common law principle that “if a party dies before a verdict or decision is rendered, the action abates as to him and must be dismissed unless it is revived by substitution of a personal representative.” Bagalay, 60 Haw. 135 (emphasis added). Our Hawai‘i Supreme Court has made it clear that it is improper to continue legal proceedings because a “deceased person cannot be a party to a legal proceeding, and the effect of death is to suspend the action as to the decedent until his legal representative is substituted as a party.” Id. (Emphasis added.) In this respect, the order that follows is consistent with and mindful of practice and precepts of common law.

This order concerns ascertaining the identity of a possible person who may be substituted for a party who is now deceased. The Board’s order, herein, is consistent with the procedure undertaken by the Intermediate Court of Appeals of the State of Hawai‘i (“ICA”) in City and County of Honolulu v. Sharon Black, CAAP-11-0000748, (Haw. App. 2013), wherein a self-represented appellant died after filing an opening brief at the ICA. Although Black is not a published decision and is of limited precedential value, it is noteworthy that in its effort to ascertain the identity of a proper person to substitute for the deceased appellant, the ICA placed the onus on the appellee to confirm with the court whether a special administrator or personal representative had been appointed to represent the appellant’s estate and to give the personal representative or special administrator, if any, notice: (1) of the pending appeal, copies of the opening brief, and copies of the answering brief; (2) that s/he must enter an appearance to indicate the estate’s plan to continue with the appeal within the time frame specified by the ICA; and (3) that failure to do so in a timely manner may result in the dismissal of the appeal. The ICA also ordered the appellee to file a declaration indicating compliance with the foregoing.

Just as the ICA placed the onus on the appellee to confirm whether a personal representative had been appointed and to provide relevant notice of and documents pertaining to the pending appeal to the court, the Board, by way of this order, orders Employer FIRST HAWAIIAN BANK to do the same.¹ The reasonableness of the ICA in effecting such a procedure is apparent. The ¹ The Board is quasi-judicial in nature; thus, where there exists no statutory authority or specific guidance regarding the exact manner by which an appeal to the Board should be handled upon the death of a party, as here, a reasonable course of action is to seek guidance from higher courts and established rules.

Employer, as the remaining party to this appeal, is the only party that has a vested interest in resolving the appeal, whether by dismissal or decision.

Further, the Board's order for the Employer to assist in ascertaining the identity of a person who may be lawfully substituted for a party who is now deceased requires only a quick, electronic search because that person must be appointed by the circuit court. See generally, HRS Chapter 560, Uniform Probate Code. Because the person who may be lawfully substituted for Claimant can be approved only by Hawai'i's Circuit Court, a search (electronic² or otherwise) of the Hawai'i State Judiciary court records will quickly reveal if a special administrator or personal representative has been appointed.

The Board's order and notice of intention to dismiss herein will be published on the Board's website for at least 180 days. The inherent capabilities of the internet allow this order and notice to reach a world-wide public audience because the order and notice will be available for viewing 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, for as long as it is posted. Further, an internet search of Claimant's name will yield instant retrieval of this order and notice, available for review without incurring any subscription costs or membership.³

³ Publication via the Board's website is far superior to placement of a legal notice publication in a newspaper of general circulation, where the notice may only appear once in each of 2 successive weeks, on random dates and,

Publication of the Board’s order herein and its notice of intention to dismiss this appeal provides additional notice beyond what the ICA or the court rules provide. In Black, the ICA did not publish a notice of intent to dismiss before dismissing the appellant/decedent’s appeal. Rather, the ICA noted that no one representing appellant/decedent’s estate moved to substitute as a party for appellant/decedent and ordered the appeal dismissed. Similarly, there is no publication requirement in Rule 25(a)(1) of the Hawai‘i Rules of Civil Procedure, which states that “[i]f a party dies and the claim is not thereby extinguished,” “[u]nless the motion for substitution is made not later than 120 days after the death is suggested. . . the action shall be dismissed as to the deceased party.”

Being fully advised in the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the above-captioned appeal be held in abeyance until March 15, 2024, pending the Board’s receipt of a written appearance by a court-appointed personal representative or special administrator of Claimant’s estate (the Estate of AURORA MANZON). Such appearance is to be made on or before March 15, 2024. Extensions by the Board may be granted upon good cause shown or at the discretion of the Board.

perhaps, on a Sunday, and may only be available to subscribers of that particular newspaper publication.

If the Board does not receive any of the above-referenced, written appearances on or before March 15, 2024 and no extension of this deadline is granted by the Board, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Employer FIRST HAWAIIAN BANK will have until April 4, 2024 to confirm, in writing, whether or not a special administrator or personal representative of Claimant's estate (the Estate of AURORA MANZON) was appointed on or before March 15, 2024, and:

1. If a special administrator or personal representative of Claimant's estate was not appointed on or before March 15, 2024 Employer shall file a declaration with the Board that confirms this, on or before April 4, 2024.
2. If a special administrator or personal representative of Claimant's estate has been appointed, Employer shall, on or before April 4, 2024:
 - a. Provide the special administrator or personal representative with written notice of the appeal herein, any and all Pretrial Orders pertaining to this appeal, and this Order Holding Case in Abeyance;
 - b. Give notice to the special administrator or personal representative that, on or before May 14, 2024, the special administrator or personal representative must enter an appearance in this appeal and indicate whether the estate plans to continue the appeal with a substitute party or the appeal will be dismissed; and
 - c. File a declaration with this Board that confirms compliance with this order and includes the identity and contact information of the special administrator or personal representative of Claimant's estate.

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that this appeal may be dismissed after March 15, 2024, unless an appearance is made by either a court-appointed personal representative of Claimant's estate (the Estate of AURORA MANZON) or a special administrator of Claimant's estate (the Estate of AURORA MANZON). Extensions by the Board may be granted upon good cause shown or at the discretion of the Board.
