Apply for Benefits Online

Have information ready. To file online for weekly benefits, you must have the following information if applicable:

- Earnings for each week.
- Total hours worked for each week.
- Number of employers contacted for work during the week.
- Name and address of new employer.
- Start date of new employment.
- Other deductible income described in your Handbook of Unemployment Benefits.

For more information concerning these eligibility requirements, see the Benefits Rights and Information Handbook \(PDF\).

Filing Online - What to Expect

Online filing is a secure and efficient way to file your claim. Please Note:

- Session expires after 30 minutes - The process takes about 3 to 10 minutes. If you remain inactive for 30 minutes (i.e. you do not click Continue), your session will automatically close.
- Saving of "drafts" is not allowed - You cannot save drafts of your certification, but you are able to review and edit before you submit it. Be prepared to submit a complete certification in a single online session.

Policies and Terms

Before continuing you must read and accept the following policies and terms:

USAGE - Use of this Web site is for the sole purpose of filing for unemployment insurance.

- You are filing an Unemployment Insurance claim for yourself only, and the choice to do so is entirely yours.
- You understand that you must complete the process and receive a confirmation number for your claim to be filed.
- You understand that the effective date of the claim you are filing is the Sunday of the week in which you file your claim.
- You agree not to "data mine" or otherwise gather or extract data from this Web site for any purposes other than filing your unemployment insurance Claim Certification.

FRAUD - You are responsible for reporting any information that affects your eligibility for benefits.

- If you knowingly make a false statement or representation, or withhold material facts for the purpose of obtaining any benefits you are not entitled to, you will be disqualified for two years. The disqualification is effective from the week the determination is made and for the next twenty-four months.
- You must repay all unemployment benefits you were overpaid.
- Depending on the seriousness of the offense, your case may be referred for criminal prosecution. If the amount of the benefits fraudulently obtained is more than $300, you will be charged with a class "C" felony for theft in the second degree, which carries a maximum punishment of five (5) years imprisonment and/or $10,000 fine.

DISCLOSURE - All information we obtain to determine your eligibility for benefits is confidential, except where disclosure is authorized by department regulations, as follows:

- To any federal or state agency charged with the administration of an unemployment compensation law or the maintenance of a system of public employment offices and to the Social Security Administration to verify your social security number.
- To the federal Internal Revenue Service.
- To the federal National Directory of New Hires.
- To the federal Immigration and Naturalization Service.
- To any federal, state, or municipal agency charged with the administration of a fair employment practice or anti-discrimination law.
- To any other federal, state, or municipal agency if the director deems that disclosure to that agency serves the public interest.

If you do not understand: Please contact Unemployment Insurance and speak with a Customer Service Representative.
