Assessment of AJCH Brand Among Employers

What We Have Found

Awareness and utilization of American Job Center is low among businesses.

Only 33% of survey respondents statewide said they had heard of the American Job Center.

Businesses are facing workforce challenges including recruiting qualified employees and training employees for their industry.

56% of survey respondents said that recruiting/finding qualified employees is the most difficult challenge that their company faces regarding workforce.

Businesses express hesitation to use government services but are curious about what American Job Center can provide.

64% of survey respondents were Very Likely to Somewhat Likely if they were advised that job candidates referred by the American Job Center have been trained in the skills needed for their industry.

Make Success Even More Consistent

"Mark Gray reached out to us personally."

"I think somebody came and had a candidate for us and it worked out great."

"They are a good resource. (We) had a good relationship with them. They provided us with workers."

"I want to communicate with them more information on how to benefit my company."

"Keep up the good work!"

"We are really happy with the services that American Job Center has provided for us."

"We learned that if we align ourselves with the American Job Center and we're getting people jobs, that's really, really good for our business."

Workforce Development Council 18

Focus on the Customer Experience

"You can't run a program on one or two success stories."

"Posting and praying doesn't work anymore."

"We gave (O'ahu WorkLinks) a chance. We did a job fair. The quality of candidates was an issue."

"The biggest challenge is life skills. Will they show up for work? There's a reason why these job-seekers need the services of the American Job Center Hawaii."

"I referred people to O'ahu WorkLinks because I felt I was in a position to help fulfill their purpose. But after the initial calls, there wasn't follow-up."

Findings From Employer Survey & Interviews

We don't need to be everything to everyone overnight.

Employers are willing to give the American Job Center Hawaii a try.

Collaboration and partnerships are the keys to success.

Scaling Success Over Time

Year 1 Pilot & Prep

Update brand assets including:

- AJCH website.
- CRM.
- Outreach kit.
- Testimonials, case studies and success stories.

Pilot new systems in priority industries.

Establish employer engagement KPIs and reporting practices.

Define how business engagement teams will collaborate and coordinate.

Triggers

Intake and processing training and protocols done.

Consistent and scalable service delivery.

Focused growth pilot completed and evaluated.

Need for more job-seeker placements.

Year 2 Mass Market Launch

Brand rollout launch, from internal to external.

Engage current and re-engage past employer partners.

Outreach, PR and advertising launch to acquire new employer partners. Possible strategies include:

- Employer Depth: More departments serviced for current/past employer partners.

Key Decisions for Implementation

What are the goals/milestones for employer engagement?

From July 2017 - June 2018, the O'ahu American Job Center Hawaii and its partners served 6,281 adult job-seekers and 572 employers.

Who will drive the brand rollout and outreach campaign?

What funding is available?

Equip Staff with Training and Resources

“Because of funding cuts, the numbers (of Business Engagement team) got cut. We don’t currently have a Business Engagement team that focuses primarily on business services.”

“I’ve spoken to Chambers, Rotaries and associations about who we are. When outreaching to businesses, we ask, ‘How can we meet your needs?’”
