Re: Honolulu Academy of Art dba Honolulu Museum of Art - Dislocated Workers Act Notice

Dear Mr. Murakami:

This letter is being issued to you pursuant to the Hawaii Dislocated Workers Act ("DWA").

Honolulu Museum of Art, 900 South Beretania Street Honolulu, HI 96825, (the "Company") has decided to close Spalding House and will likely sell the location sometime after Spalding House's closure (the "Transaction"), which will result in a partial closing of operations, as defined by the DWA. Although discussions over the sale are continuing and an exact closing date has not yet been determined, the Company anticipates the closing date to be on or after December 15, 2019.

There are currently 298 employees at the Company, and while it is estimated the Company will retain 290 employees, 8 of the Company's current employees will lose employment in conjunction with the partial closing. All affected employees have been notified of their separation dates.

We know that this information is very important to you, and we will make every effort to continue to update you as information becomes available. If you have any questions about the information in this letter or require further information, please feel free to contact me at (808) 532-3619.

Sincerely,

Sharon Stillman
Human Resources Director
