Whether or not this action triggers the requirements of the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act or California Labor Code Section 1400 et seq., or other similar acts, we thought it appropriate to give you this notice. We are taking these employment actions because of COVID-19-related business circumstances that were not reasonably foreseeable. We would like to have given more notice of this action, but were unable to do so because of how quickly our operations were affected by the COVID-19 pandemic, the World Health Organization's pandemic declaration on March 11th, the President's declaration of a national emergency on March 13th, and other related governmental announcements and actions.

We also have given or are giving appropriate notice to the affected workers and any unions. Consistent with California law, those notices include the following statement: If you have lost your job or been laid off temporarily, you may be eligible for Unemployment Insurance (UI). More information on UI and other resources available for workers is available at labor.ca.gov/coronavirus2019.

Should you wish further information, please contact me at the following phone number: 877-283-2496.

Sincerely,

Adam Sedlack
