

Presentation to Workforce Development Council's Executive Committee
Thursday, July 23, 2020

PRESENTATION SUMMARY

Hawaii is Hiring is a one-stop online resource for job seekers and new graduates that simplifies access to Hawaii's many existing employment, training and education resources. It features a Hawaii-specific job board as well as links to internships and apprenticeships for on the job experience. The portal also highlights training and education programs that help kama`aina reskill or upskill for more career options. Hawaii is Hiring also highlights our state's in-demand and emerging industries so jobseekers can transfer their skills into new opportunities that exist. This new community resource launches July 22.
