III. OPERATIONAL PLANNING ELEMENTS

(b) State Operating Systems and Policies.

(3) STATE PROGRAM AND STATE BOARD OVERVIEW

(A) State Agency Organization. Describe the organization and delivery systems at the State and local levels for the programs covered in the plan, including the organizational structure. Include an organizational chart.

The Hawaii State Department of Education (HIDOE) is the eligible agency for the Adult Education Family Literacy Act (AEFLA) grant funds, Title II of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) for Hawaii. The state director for adult education is responsible for administering funds and providing oversight to grantees and is located in the Office of Curriculum and Instructional Design (OCID).

The HIDOE's organizational structure consists of the Hawaii State Board of Education as the governing authority, the superintendent as the chief executive officer for the HIDOE, and three deputy superintendents who oversee seven state office assistant superintendents and 15 school complex area superintendents. Complex areas are organized geographically by a high school and the middle and elementary schools that feed into that high school.

The deputy superintendent of academics oversees the assistant superintendent of OCID, where the state director for adult education is located.

HIDOE Organizational Structure:

- Hawaii State Board of Education
- Superintendent
- Deputy Superintendent of Academics
- Assistant Superintendent – Office of Curriculum and Instructional Design
- Director – Curriculum Innovation Branch/State Director of Adult Education
- Administrator – Career Readiness Section
- Educational Specialist Community Education - AEFLA Title II WIOA

Adult education and literacy activities, integrated English literacy and civics education, and corrections education are provided statewide by local providers through grants awarded by a competitive process following 34 CFR 463 Subpart C requirements.
