Maui's Workforce Development Hero

10/30/23 - Maui's Workforce Development Hero, Sonjia Spring pictured with AJC Manager, Kamalu Carroll, and Executive Director, Chentelle Rowland, at the Future of Work 2024 inaugural conference on O'ahu.

Sonjia Spring, Employment Specialist, with the Workforce Development Division is Maui's Workforce Development Hero! She is one of our partners co-located at the Maui American Job Center (AJC).

Sonjia was instrumental in the successful re-opening of the AJC during the pandemic. Sonjia always went beyond the call to assist her participants with any UI questions and HireNet registration. Sonjia has a special way of connecting with her clients where they feel valued after every appointment.

She's motivated to work towards workforce resiliency and has helped carry the Maui AJC through some challenging days. It's because of strong partners like WDD and Sonjia that we are confident that we'll get through Maui's August wildfire disasters. Devastation only unites, and we always come back stronger.

- In partnership with the DOE, we're hosting the first ever hiring fair where all the Maui County schools have been invited. The DOE is able to cover the cost of ground transportation and Moloka'i/Lana'i airfare as appropriate for all event-registered public schools.
- The intent is to secure gainful employment that will provide an income to support a single-person household above the ALICE threshold at a minimum starting wage of $18.00/hour.
- If employers are offering positions that pay less than that, we ask that employers explain to the applicants what the opportunities for advancement to that wage are and how long that may take. If additional training and/or education is needed, we connect them to our workforce development programs for supports and services.
